

Welcome to the 2024 Morrow County Fair!

August 26 - September 2, 2024

The Officers and Directors of the Morrow County Agricultural Society welcome you to the 174th Morrow County Fair. Please take the time to view updates and schedules on our website at <http://www.morrowcountyfair.org>.

We would like to take this opportunity to thank all the people, past and present, who have helped to make the Morrow County Fair a family tradition. It would not be possible without the support and cooperation from all the businesses, organizations, county officials and individuals each year.

The Morrow County Fair is a place to express creative skills of all ages while showcasing our agricultural heritage. It honors the timeless traditions of the past while welcoming the challenge of an evolving future. We invite you to join us for another year of fellowship and fun with friends old and new!

Your comments and suggestions are always welcome (419) 947-1611.

ADOPTED DECEMBER 7, 1885
REVISED FEBRUARY 18, 1933
REVISED DECEMBER 5, 1984
REVISED SEPTEMBER 1, 2001
REVISED, AUGUST 30, 2014
REVISED NOVEMBER 4, 2023

CONSTITUTION

ARTICLE I: The Fair will be known as the Morrow County Agricultural Society and its purpose shall be for the improvement of agriculture, domestic industry, public schools and other interests of the county the board deems proper.

ARTICLE II: The Board of Directors for the management of this Society shall consist of not more than twenty-two members, one from each Township in the County and six Directors At Large with no more than two from any Village, one third of whom, or not to exceed one more than one third, to be elected annually for a term of three years. Term of office begins at first regular meeting after Annual Fair. A vacancy by any cause may be filled by the Board of Directors until the next annual election, when a Director shall be elected for the unexpired term. The Board of Directors shall meet the first regular meeting after the fair and organize by the election of a President, Vice President, Secretary & Treasurer, whose term of office shall be one year. Only members of the Board of Directors are eligible to the office of President and Vice President. The Secretary & Treasurer may or may not be a member of the Board. Directors must qualify by taking the oath of office. Election of officers shall be by ballot.

ARTICLE III: The annual meeting of the Society for the election of members of the Board of Directors shall be on the first Saturday of November, following the fair, in the office of the Secretary, 9:00 A.M. to 1:00 P.M. Candidates for Directors must be members. Each candidate shall declare his candidacy by filing with the Secretary of the Society a petition signed by ten or more members of the Society, at least seven days before the annual election of directors is held. The Secretary of the Board shall send name and address of each member of it's board to the director of agriculture within ten days after the election.

ARTICLE IV: Anyone may become a member of the Society for one year by purchasing a membership certificate at $3.00 and at the same time receive a certificate of membership from a book with a duplicate stub and both be numbered consecutively. Membership certificates on sale on or after December 15 at the Secretary's Office, P.O. Box 168 Mt. Gilead Ohio 43338.

ARTICLE V: It shall be the duty of the President to preside at all meetings of the Society and Board, to preserve order and perform all duties of the usual character for such office. It shall also be the duty of the President, within thirty days of his election, to appoint an Executive Committee of three members, whose duty it shall be to have charge of the grounds and buildings, together with all necessary repairs; also the erection of any new buildings ordered by the Board. Also a Speed Committee of three members whose duty it shall be to have charge of the Speed Program and Race Track; a finance Committee of three members, whose duty shall be to look after the finances of the Society; an Auditing Committee of two members to audit the books of the Treasurer; a Music and Attraction Committee of three members to secure music and attractions for the Fair; a Revisions Committee of three members to revise the Annual Premium List; a Concession Committee of three members consisting of the President, Vice President and Secretary or Treasurer. The President shall also appoint a member in charge as Superintendent of each department.

ARTICLE VI: It shall be the duty of the Vice President to preside in the absence of the President and to assist the President in the management of the fair.

ARTICLE VII: The Secretary & Treasurer shall give the Bond to the satisfaction of the Board; shall keep a full record of the business and proceedings of the Society and Board; shall conduct correspondence and shall have the authority at the suggestion of two or more Directors to call a meeting of the Society or Board when deemed necessary; shall receive all monies belonging to the Society and issue receipts for the same, make entry in the book provided for that purpose and deposit all funds in the name of the Society; shall pay out said funds for premiums and other disbursements when directed by the Board; shall prepare an itemized statement of receipts and expenditures for the year and see that the State report is made out and delivered according to Section 98180 of the General Code; give notice of Directors in election three weeks prior to the filing thereof, twice in at least one newspaper of general circulation in the County, keep a current list of membership of the Society available for inspection by any resident of the county.

ARTICLE VIII:

SECTION 1. Amendments to the Constitution or by-laws may be proposed by:
A. A majority of the Board of Directors at a scheduled meeting voting in favor of placing an amendment on the ballot; or

B. Filing a petition with the Secretary at least fourteen days prior to the annual election of the Board of Directors or annual meeting of the membership of the Society. Said petition must set forth the proposed amendment and be signed by not less than twenty-five members eligible to vote.

SECTION 2. If an amendment is proposed, it shall be submitted to the membership of the Society at the annual election of the Board of Directors or at the annual meeting of the Society.

SECTION 3. When more than one amendment is proposed, they shall be so submitted as to enable the members to vote on each amendment separately, in order of addition to motion of amendments.

SECTION 4. If the majority of the membership voting on the proposed amendment shall adopt such amendment, it shall become a part of the Constitution or by-laws.

ARTICLE IX: Competitors for premiums must have purchased a "Season pass".

ARTICLE X: A list of articles and animals for which premiums are to be awarded must be published at least three months previous to the day of exhibition.

ARTICLE XI: Animals entered for premium must be entered in the name of the bona fide owner except that ownership shall not be required in class of get or sire and produce of dam.

ARTICLE XII: Display and exhibit of all kinds of vehicles, machinery and farm implements open to the world.

ARTICLE XIII: The members in charge of each department offering premiums, shall select a competent person to act as judge in his department and recommend to the Board for approval and make a list of awards and have it signed by judge.

ARTICLE XIV: The animal exhibition of the Society must be held at the time discretionary with the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE XV: It shall be the duty of the President, Vice President and Secretary to supervise the printing of cards and admission tickets and to pass the admission tickets to the Treasurer and take his receipt for the same. It shall be the duty of the gate keeper to deliver the admission tickets to the President.

ARTICLE XVI: If any member of the Board of Directors be absent from three consecutive meetings, duly called, unless prevented by actual sickness of himself or family, or absent from the county, his place shall be declared vacant and filled according to Article II.

BY-LAWS

1. When animals or articles are not deemed worthy of a premium the judge will make no award, though there be no competition; but at their discretion the judges may award second premium.
2. The privilege of becoming a member of this Society for the purpose of voting at the annual election ceases one (1) week prior to Election. Memberships on sale December 15th.
3. The officers of the Fair shall take every precaution in their power for the preservation of all stock on exhibit, but will not be responsible for any loss or damage which may occur. Exhibitors are requested to give personal attention to their property.
4. Any six members of the Board shall be a quorum to do business.

RULES

1. Exhibitors must purchase a season pass to exhibit. All entries must be made by 5:00 P.M. on Thursday August 1, 2024, at which time the books will be closed. Entry fee must accompany entries.
2. All departments and classes will be passed upon by one or more judges at the option of the Board.
3. No gambling or lottery devices, pool selling, paddle wheels or immoral shows.
4. No persons shall be allowed the privilege of selling, dealing or bartering in spirituous, vinous or malt liquor on the fairgrounds. No drug related or obscene literature to be sold or distributed.
5. All persons, firms, organizations, committees, groups, and companies granted exhibition space for the Morrow County Fair shall abide by rules and regulations of the Morrow County Agricultural Society and the Ohio Department of Agriculture. Only lessees shall occupy the space assigned. No exhibit space may be sublet without written approval of Fair Board.

RULES CONTINUED

6. Concessionaires are bound by the terms of the contract they sign at the time of securing concessions. In addition they are liable to strict supervision by the management. The right is reserved to promulgate and enforce whatever rules appear necessary for the regulation of concessions.
7. Purchasers of privileges must keep their spaces in sanitary condition. Concessionaires and their help must be neat and tidy in dress. Persons found working at any privileges not complying with this section may be expelled from the grounds.
8. No persons are allowed to interfere with the awarding judge while making examinations.
9. All premiums not demanded before the first of December, next after the fair, shall be deemed donated to the Society.
10. All animals entered for competition and exhibition must be placed in their proper department on the first Monday of the fair between 9:00 a.m. and 7:00 p.m. All animals must be inspected by the fair vet in the barn at the designated time and not removed from the stalls, or pens before their breed has sold in the Jr. Fair Livestock Sale, on the last day of the fair.
11. Exhibitors of all cattle, sheep, and swine will be required to have registry papers at the show. Registry of all animals over one year and under one year eligible.
12. No intoxicated or disorderly persons shall be permitted to remain on the grounds, and it is hereby made the duty of the marshal, special constables and police to arrest on view all such persons and take them before the proper officers to be dealt with according to law.
13. If any disrespectful, vulgar or abusive language is used by an exhibitor, his agent or agency to any officer or member of the Board of Agricultural Society, to any awarding committee of their awards, or to the exhibitor of his agents, said exhibitor using such language shall forfeit all premiums that have been awarded to him during the fair; and also by a majority of the Board, to be expelled and deprived of the right to make exhibits or make entries to the Morrow County Fair for the space of not less than three (3) years and not more than ten (10) years, as the majority of the Board shall see proper and fit to designate. And it shall be the duty of the Board of Society, who may know and hear of such conduct to report the same to the board at its first subsequent meeting.
14. Any person or persons offering any animal in violation of Article XI of the Constitution shall forfeit all premiums that may have been awarded to him or them.
15. Directors, other than the Treasurer & Secretary shall receive $4.00 per meeting, not to exceed twelve meetings and mileage both ways. Fair week to be called one meeting. Treasurer and Secretary receive compensation for their service.
16. No barren animal will be allowed to compete for premiums with breeding stock.
17. The Superintendent of each department shall read to the awarding judges of the different classes such part of instructions as pertain to their respective classes and see that the judge signs the committee books.
18. There shall be no entries made for competition on any articles not enumerated in the premium list.
19. In case the funds of the Society, after paying individual expense, shall be insufficient to pay the full amount of premiums which may be awarded, the same may be paid pro-rata among the successful competitors to whom the premiums may be awarded.
20. Protests against awards in any of the departments of the fair must be made in writing, signed and sworn to and clearly set forth. The grounds of protest must be filed with the Secretary no later than one day after the awards are made. Protests must be accompanied by a protest fee of $25.00 which will be retained by the Society if the protest is not sustained. All protests will be considered by the Board at its first meeting succeeding the Fair, unless otherwise ordered. Parties interested will be duly notified and opportunity given them to submit evidence. Premiums or protested articles or animals will be withheld until the protest is decided.
21. All judges and department head rulings are final and uncontestable.
 - A) Judges determinations are made immediately at that time
 - B) Protests are against individuals or families against other individuals or families
22. Exhibitors must furnish their own hay or straw.
23. Police on duty day and night.
24. Nothing shall be sold or given away or otherwise disposed of which will in any way conflict with, or which is the subject matter of any privilege or concession granted or sold by the Morrow County Agricultural Society.

25. The Morrow County Agricultural Society will not be responsible for accidents or thefts on the grounds, but diligent care will be exercised to prevent same.
26. Premium cards and ribbons have no value as to payment of premiums, as premiums are paid only from records of the Judge's Books.
27. Every effort is made in the preparation of the Premium List for the Morrow County Fair to have it accurate, but the Society cannot bear any responsibility for errors, and no liability is assumed by the Society for any error in printing of the List.
28. Any exhibitor who has no competition can win only first and second premiums. Only one entry permitted in group classes and two in single classes.
29. No dogs will be allowed on the fairgrounds. Exception: Day of Dog Show - when all show dogs shall be kept on leash and at the Show Area at all times.

901-19-02 Types of shows; slaughter

This is a mandatory rule.

(A) The sponsor of an exhibition shall designate each of the shows held at the exhibition as one of the following types: terminal show, partial terminal show, or non-terminal show.

(B) All of the following junior livestock shows or classes at a fair must be terminal shows or partial terminal shows unless at least thirty days prior to the opening of the show, the sponsor has submitted a written request to exempt a show from this provision, and the director has provided written authorization granting this request prior to the start of the fair:

- (1) Market beef steer;
- (2) Market hog;
- (3) Market lamb;
- (4) Market dairy steer;
- (5) Veal calf; and
- (6) Market goat.

(C) All livestock which participate in a terminal show shall be consigned to slaughter either at the conclusion of the show or immediately following the exhibition.

(D) In a partial terminal show at least the grand champion and the reserve grand champion shall be slaughtered. Prior to the show, the sponsor of the exhibition may require that additional livestock from a partial terminal show shall be slaughtered. The livestock shall be consigned to slaughter either at the conclusion of the show or immediately following the exhibition.

(E) All livestock required to be slaughtered under this rule shall be slaughtered at a meat establishment either licensed by the department or granted inspection by the United States department of agriculture.

(F) Notwithstanding paragraphs (B), (C) and (D) of this rule, livestock required to be slaughtered under this rule may, at the option of the sponsor of the exhibition, be consigned to a licensed livestock facility for sale provided that:

(1) The livestock is consigned either at the conclusion of the show or immediately following the exhibition; and,

(2) The livestock is sold only for slaughter.

(G) From the beginning of the exhibition until departure for slaughter or consignment to a licensed livestock facility, the exhibitor or the exhibitor's designee shall be responsible for caring for the livestock.

(H) Livestock destined for slaughter or consignment to a licensed livestock facility shall not be removed from the exhibition grounds until the livestock is transported to slaughter, to the licensed livestock facility, or until the sponsor approves movement of the livestock to another secure area for:

(1) Disease control in accordance with paragraph (B) (4) of rule 901-18-03 of the Administrative Code; and

(2) Quarantine for residue to allow a withdrawal time as determined by the approved fair veterinarian or in accordance with the instructions listed on the drug use notification form to elapse and maybe subject to testing.

(I) All livestock destined for slaughter shall be subject to testing by the director in accordance with section 901.73 of the Revised Code.

(J) Livestock carcasses passing inspection may be released for normal disposition.

(K) During inspection or testing, if the livestock carcass is preliminarily determined to have been tampered with or found to contain an unlawful substance, one of the following shall occur:

(1) If the livestock carcass must be trimmed or reconditioned to comply with the meat inspection requirements, the carcass shall be trimmed and reconditioned and released to the exhibitor, unless the successful bidder accepts the trimmed or reconditioned carcass.

(2) If the livestock carcass cannot be trimmed or reconditioned, it shall be condemned in accordance with the meat inspection requirements.

(L) Livestock entered in or eligible for a carcass contest prior to or during a terminal, partial terminal or non-terminal show must be exhibition drug residue legal at the time of show and eligible for immediate slaughter.

901-19-03 Auction sales at terminal or partial terminal shows

This is a mandatory rule.

(A) A sponsor may hold an auction sale of livestock exhibited at a terminal or partial terminal show.

(B) An exhibitor who exhibits livestock at a terminal show or partial terminal show consents to participating in the subsequent auction sale.

(C) All bidders at an auction sale following a terminal show or partial terminal show consent to the slaughter of the livestock or delivery to a licensed livestock facility.

(D) Title to livestock sold at an auction sale and subsequently presented for slaughter or sale at a licensed livestock facility shall remain vested in the exhibitor. If the exhibitor is not the owner, the title to the livestock shall remain vested in the owner until the livestock has been passed by inspection and released in accordance with paragraphs (K)(1) and (K)(2) of rule 901-19-02 of the Administrative Code and passes all testing performed by or at the direction of the department or the sponsor.

(E) At the discretion of the sponsor, the sponsor may collect the sale proceeds from the successful bidder and retain the proceeds until the carcass of the livestock has been released, or may allow the successful bidder to withhold payment of the proceeds until the carcass is released. In the event the carcass is not released, the sponsor shall return the sale proceeds to the successful bidder.

(F) Prior to the auction, the sponsor shall announce the identification of the exhibition livestock which have been administered drugs for which the withdrawal time has not elapsed.

901-19-04 Prohibited practices

This is a mandatory rule.

No person shall:

(A) Administer or cause or permit to be administered a prescription drug to livestock either immediately before an exhibition or during an exhibition unless the prescription drug is administered:

- (1) By or under the supervision and direction of a veterinarian;
- (2) Only in accordance with label directions;
- (3) In conjunction with a valid veterinarian-client-patient relationship;
- (4) For a valid medical purpose; and,
- (5) A drug use notification form is completed and filed in accordance with the applicable requirements of rule 901-19-06 of the Administrative Code.

(B) Administer or cause or permit to be administered an over the counter drug to livestock either immediately before an exhibition or during an exhibition unless the over the counter drug is administered:

- (1) By or under the supervision or direction of the exhibitor, the exhibitor's designee, the owner of the livestock or a veterinarian;
- (2) Only in accordance with label directions;
- (3) Only for a valid medical purpose; and,
- (4) A drug use notification form is completed and filed in accordance with the applicable requirements of rule 901-19-06 of the Administrative Code.

(C) Administer or cause or permit to be administered either a prescription drug or an over the counter drug other than in accordance with the drug's label directions unless extra label use of the drug is:

- (1) By or under the supervision and direction of a veterinarian;
- (2) Only in accordance with the extra label directions provided by the veterinarian;
- (3) In conjunction with a valid veterinarian-client-patient relationship;
- (4) For a valid medical purpose;
- (5) A drug use notification form is completed and filed in accordance with the applicable requirements of rule 901-19-06 of the Administrative Code; and,
- (6) An extended withdrawal time is assigned to the drug by the veterinarian as part of the extra label directions and reported on the drug use notification form.

(D) Show, sell, or offer for sale any livestock which contains an unlawful substance or has been subjected to unacceptable practices as outlined in rule 901-19-03 of the Administrative Code.

(E) Show any livestock which contains a drug in an amount which exceeds the tolerance level if established or safe level; or, a drug for which the withdrawal period has not elapsed unless administered in accordance with paragraph (A), (B) or (C) of this rule.

(F) Sell or offer for sale in an auction at a terminal or partial terminal show an animal that contains a drug in an amount which exceeds the tolerance level if established or safe level; or, a drug for which the withdrawal period has not elapsed unless administered in accordance with paragraph (A), (B) or (C) of this rule.

(G) Exhibit an animal which has been tranquilized.

(H) Make a false statement on a drug use notification form.

(I) Fail to file or update a drug use notification form as required by 901-19-06 of the Administrative Code.

(J) Negligently cause an unlawful substance to be present in an animal.

(K) Fail to sign a chain of custody form.

(L) Violate a mandatory rule.

(M) Violate any optional rule from which a sponsor or exhibitor did not exempt itself.

(N) Fail to render assistance as provided by section 901.73 of the Revised Code.

901-19-05 Responsibilities of an exhibition sponsor

This is a mandatory rule.

(A) Every sponsor of an exhibition shall appoint a person as its records official. The records official shall receive and maintain the drug use notification forms filed under rule 901-19-06 of the Administrative Code.

(1) The records official shall reject any drug use notification form that is incomplete, illegible or unsigned. At the close of the exhibition the records official shall turn over the drug use notification forms received by him to the sponsor.

(2) The sponsor shall maintain all drug use notification forms for a period of one year from the close of an exhibition. The drug use notification forms shall be made available to the department for inspection and copying upon request.

(3) Review the submitted drug use notification forms prior to the show for compliance with paragraph (I) of rule 901-19-06 and rule 901-19-07 of the Administrative Code.

(4) Review the submitted drug use notification forms for compliance with paragraph (B) of rule 901-19-38 of the Administrative Code if applicable.

(B) The sponsor of an exhibition shall provide information requested by the director on a form prescribed by the director at least ten days before the start of the exhibition.

(C) Prior to the start of an exhibition, the sponsor shall establish a method of identifying each animal in a terminal, partial terminal, and non-terminal show and maintain a chain of custody for each market livestock animal from the show through consignment to either slaughter or a licensed livestock facility for sale. The sponsor shall maintain a record of the identity of each animal and its chain of custody for a period of one year from the date of the last day of an exhibition.

(D) All county and independent agricultural societies and the Ohio expositions commission shall print Chapter 901:1-18 of the Administrative Code (Ohio's livestock health exhibition rules) in their premium book for the current year.

(E) The sponsor of a county or independent agricultural society or the Ohio exposition commission shall provide a livestock exhibitor or an adult advisor, upon request, a copy of Chapter 901-19 of the Administrative Code and print in their current premium book the following notice: "Chapter 901-19 of the Administrative Code (Ohio's livestock tampering exhibition rules) will be made available to a livestock exhibitor or an adult advisor, upon request."

(F) The sponsor may elect to include the entire text of Chapter 901-19 of the Administrative Code within their premium book.

(G) All other exhibitions shall provide to exhibitors, upon request, a copy of Chapters 901:1-18 and 901-19 of the Administrative Code and shall include the following statement in at least one written announcement prior to the beginning of the exhibition: "The exhibition's management will provide, upon request of an exhibitor, a copy of Chapters 901:1-18 (Ohio's livestock health exhibition rules) and 901-19 (Ohio's livestock tampering exhibition rules) of the Administrative Code."

901-19-06 Drug use notification.

This is a mandatory rule.

(A) The exhibitor and the owner of an animal are jointly and severally responsible for completing and filing out the drug use notification form in the manner required by this rule.

(B) The drug use notification form shall be signed by either the exhibitor or the owner. If the person signing the form is a minor child, the form shall be cosigned by a parent or guardian of the minor child.

(C) A drug use notification form shall be completed for every animal from which a test sample is collected at every terminal and partial terminal or non-terminal show, and for every animal that is administered a drug either immediately before or during an exhibition.

(D) The director shall require a drug use notification form to be completed for the following livestock exhibited in a junior livestock show:

- (1) Market steer;
- (2) Market hog;
- (3) Market lamb;
- (4) Veal calf;
- (5) Market dairy steer;
- (6) Market goats;
- (7) Market poultry;
- (8) Lactating dairy cattle; and
- (9) Lactating goats.

(E) The drug use notification form shall be filed with the records official prior to the show in which the animal is entered.

(F) The director may require a drug use notification form to be completed for livestock exhibited at any type of show including a non-terminal show.

(G) If the information on the form regarding drug use changes or if a drug is subsequently administered at any time after the drug use notification form is filed, an updated drug use notification form shall immediately be filed with the records official.

(H) No person shall submit an incomplete, illegible or unsigned drug use notification form.

(I) When a drug use notification form submitted to a records official for livestock is incomplete, illegible, or unsigned neither the exhibitor nor the owner shall, until the defect is corrected:

(1) Receive any prizes or awards from shows in which the livestock was exhibited prior to the time the drug use notification form was to be filed.

(2) Participate in any shows or sales held subsequent to the time the drug use notification form was to be filed.

901-19-07 Quality assurance

This is a mandatory rule.

(A) Except as stated in paragraph (B) of this rule, sponsors shall require exhibitors at fairs sponsored by county or independent agricultural societies or the Ohio exposition commission to annually attend or complete a quality assurance program sponsored and conducted cooperatively by the exhibition sponsor, Ohio state university extension, Ohio agricultural education, or agricultural commodity organizations.

(B) At the discretion of Ohio state university extension, or Ohio agricultural education, an exhibitor may pass a test based on the appropriate skill level for their age (twelve to fourteen or fifteen to eighteen) under the supervision of Ohio state university extension or Ohio agricultural education before exhibiting terminal or partial terminal market livestock, including market poultry, lactating dairy cattle and lactating goats in a junior livestock show. Youth who pass the test will be exempt from annual quality assurance re-certification until they move to the next age bracket or they are no longer a junior exhibitor (nineteen years of age or older on January first of their last year). Minimum standards for youth food animal quality assurance are as set forth in appendix A to this rule.

(C) Exhibitors who fail to attend or complete a quality assurance program or fail to pass the exam as outlined in paragraph (B) of this rule may be subject to the disciplinary actions listed in rule 901-19-21 of the Administrative Code.

901-19-09 Drug residues in non-terminal show animals

This is a mandatory rule.

(A) A person may, notwithstanding paragraph (E) of rule 901-19-04 of the Administrative Code, show at a non-terminal show an animal which has been administered a drug provided they are in compliance with all of the following:

(1) The drug is a prescription drug or an extra label use of a drug and the drug is prescribed by a veterinarian pursuant to a valid veterinarian-client-patient relationship;

(2) The drug is administered or used only in accordance with label directions or the prescription;

(3) The drug is administered or used only for medical purposes; and,

(4) A drug use notification form is completed and filed in accordance with the applicable requirements of rule 901-19-06 of the Administrative Code.

(B) Milk or other food obtained from livestock which has been administered or treated with a drug and permitted to exhibit pursuant to paragraph (A) of this rule, shall not be used for human consumption.

901-19-10 Testing requirements and test results

This is a mandatory rule.

(A) Urine, blood, tissue and other test samples shall be collected in accordance with the department's protocol for the collection of livestock test samples at exhibitions. Test samples may be collected before, during, or immediately after a show. Deviation from the protocol shall be noted.

(B) The director may at his discretion, collect any urine, blood, tissue, or other test samples from exhibition animals at the time of slaughter.

901-19-11 Humane treatment of livestock

This is a mandatory rule.

(A) A person shall treat livestock in a humane manner and in accordance with acceptable commercial practices so as to protect the health, safety, and welfare of the livestock.

(B) All exhibitors shall comply with and abide by the policy statement and "code of practices" of the Ohio livestock coalition.

- (H) Using a stomach tube or pump for any purpose other than for the relief of tympany or gas on the day of exhibiting;
- (I) Drenching of livestock at an exhibition is prohibited except as permitted under paragraph (Q) of rule 901-19-12 of the Administrative Code.

901-19-19 Absolute liability

This is a mandatory rule.

- (A) Both the exhibitor and the owner of livestock are absolutely liable to discipline under rule 901-19-21 of the Administrative Code for the presence of an unlawful substance in livestock and unacceptable practices done to livestock.
- (B) If the exhibitor or the owner was a minor child at the time the unlawful substance or unacceptable practice was detected, the parent or guardian of the person shall also be absolutely liable to discipline under rule 901-19-21 of the administrative Code for the presence of an unlawful substance in livestock and unacceptable practices done to livestock.
- (C) The director or the sponsor when imposing discipline under paragraph (A) of this rule upon a person, may mitigate the discipline imposed based upon one or more of the following facts if established.
 - (1) The person did not introduce the unlawful substance into the animal or do any unacceptable practices to the livestock;
 - (2) The person had no actual or constructive knowledge that the unlawful substance was introduced into the livestock or that unacceptable practices had been done to the livestock;
 - (3) The unlawful substance was not introduced into the livestock and the unacceptable practices were not done to the livestock through the person's negligence.

901-19-21 Disciplinary action

This is a mandatory rule.

- (A) Any person who violates a provision of sections 901.70 to 901.76 of the Revised Code or any provision of this chapter is subject to any of the following disciplinary actions:
 - (1) Disqualification from any exhibition;
 - (2) Disqualification of the exhibition livestock from any exhibition;
 - (3) Continuing education;
 - (4) Written letter of reprimand;
 - (5) Forfeiture or return of awards, prizes, premiums, or proceeds; and
 - (6) Pre-exhibition drug testing.
- (B) Disqualification may include any or all shows and classes and may be for any number of years.
- (C) Anyone who violates rule 901-19-07 of the Administrative Code may be given a letter of reprimand for the first offense.

901-19-31 Responsibilities of and assistance to junior fair exhibitors

This is an optional rule.

- (A) A junior livestock show exhibitor shall be responsible for the continuous care, grooming, and preparation of the livestock entered in the junior livestock show.
- (B) An exhibitor may receive assistance in the care, grooming, and preparation of the livestock entered in the junior live stock show, provided that the assistance shall be limited to explanation or demonstration provided by the following:
 - (1) Family members;
 - (2) Household members;
 - (3) Advisors or adult volunteers of 4-H or FFA in the exhibitor's club or county;
 - (4) Vocational agriculture instructors;
 - (5) County extension agents;
 - (6) Department representatives;
 - (7) Veterinarians;
 - (8) Members of the exhibitor's 4-H club, FFA chapter, or other youth organizations; and
 - (9) Guest speakers of the 4-H, FFA, or other youth organizations.
- (C) Any person not specified in paragraph (B) of this rule who provides assistance to a junior livestock show exhibitor shall register in writing with the sponsor. The responsibility to register rests with the exhibitor. An assistant may register for more than one exhibitor. Failure to register constitutes grounds for disciplinary action against the exhibitor. Assistance shall be limited to explanation and minimal demonstration.

901-19-32 Breed shows or classes

This is an optional rule.

Unless otherwise modified by a mandatory rule, the rules of the breed association shall be accepted grooming practices for that particular breed's show or class .

901-19-33 Prohibited grooming practices

This is a mandatory rule.

The following grooming practices are prohibited in junior market livestock shows unless those grooming practices are permitted under rule 901-19-32 of the Administrative Code:
